What would we accomplish, how would we change the world, and what would we say when we got there. It took us two years to get to the point of being 100% committed to what we were doing but it was definitely worth the wait. I have no regrets. It's funny because now we're on the sidelines while everyone else is still hustling. It doesn't feel like it was that long ago, but it is. It's hard to see our loved ones get older. I'm not getting any younger either. But this life is all we got and we would've traded it for something else in a heartbeat if we had the choice to rewind. It's easy to get caught up in the daily routine, but we just can't ignore the fact that we are aging. Everyone is aging and we should be active about it. We should use what we are given and not waste it. The older I get the more grateful I am and the more focused I become. I think the people who are focused are going to be all right. We can't waste time trying to figure out what's next because there is no next, only 3da54e8ca3
