It is a sci-fi strategy game set during the destruction of the planet Earth and the human. This is the first time we will be performing at SCOPE for Visionaries: Righteous & Inventive (July 8th at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine), and we can't wait to share our ever-expanding world with New Yorkers! For 5 hours on Sunday, July 8, join us for a huge range of activities, including: New York City fashion designer Zoe Zolotar, of Sanctuary Artists and individuals like Derek Blasberg (the founder of the Sanctuary chain of artist-run galleries), helping us make a case for including fashion and art. New York Times writer Joe Hagan, talking about his book on how artists are transforming their cities. A sample of ideas for your own city in the community and at the booth, like the community gardens. A HUGE screening of a 35mm film we just finished shooting last week in New Orleans for a festival at the historic Paramount Theater. And if that's not enough, we have an ARTIST BANK where you can borrow art for your own home. We will be adding new art to the bank each month, and adding new items to the inventory from the museum collection! Sage Gordon, one of the business partners of Plamondon, who has called a press conference to announce the shooting. A production company shooting a film in Kentville saw a bizarre set-up go off during filming last week, with several locals claiming they saw an armed person on set. article continues below Wendy Motley, one of the producers, was travelling through Kentville with a production company filming a new action movie called 'The Kill Order.' As they drove through town, they came across the production crew shooting in a lumber yard. "We
